

27 May 2022, 6-8pm SGT

TPP Psychodynamic evening presents

Confronting and dealing with destructiveness within ourselves and in the outside world

Living and working as psychotherapists in a world under threat

We are all currently living under the traumatic threat of a pandemic, of a European war, the rise of far-right fascism & climate destruction. In this talk Allan will explore the questions: How does this affect our patients and our work in the consulting room and can we contain and use our own destructive feelings?

Fee

Standard: S$60

Student; S$30

Dr Allan Shafer

Clinical psychologist, psychoanalytic psychotherapist, and a socioanalytic organisation consultant in private practice in Melbourne, Australia.

A former Executive member of the Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Association of Australasia, a past President of the Association for Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy of Western Australia and a past President of Group Relations Australia. He is a clinical member of the Victorian Association of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists where he has served on the Training Ethics Committees.

He has directed or consulted on the staff of group relations conferences in Australia, the UK, India, China, Israel, Italy, Poland, Hong Kong and Taiwan. He was the associate director of the Tavistock Institute's 2019 Leicester Conference. He has published widely in the psychotherapy and the group relations fields and given seminars and workshops in New Zealand and around Australia.

He has a passionate interest in the application of psychoanalytic ideas to the social and political spheres.

For registration
& more info